Applying

Here's how to apply:

- Submit your résumé, a personal statement and references, postmarked by October 12, 2018.
- The personal statement should show how your background and life experiences have shaped you as a teacher and how might you leverage this to contribute to the Project Bridge program.
- All teachers will be contacted by November 12, 2018.

Policies on Group Leader Responsibilities:

Project Bridge enjoys an excellent reputation in New York, Los Angeles, and Korea for the quality of its students, Group Leaders, and program. We expect Group Leaders to show maturity, use good judgment, and act as role models for student Youth Ambassadors. Please note the following policies:

- Group Leaders must attend and participate in all orientation sessions and program activities before the trip to Korea, which is scheduled for 10 days in April 2019. There will be two to three mandatory meetings per month prior to departure.
- Group Leaders from New York City must participate in all post-trip activities scheduled till the early June by The Korea Society. There will be two to three mandatory meetings. A schedule will be distributed in advance.
- Group Leaders must collaborate with the Project Bridge coordinator to assign and review student assignments (e.g., essays, journal entries, and research).
- Group Leaders must collaborate with the Project Bridge coordinator to design and implement two workshops for the New York City Youth Ambassadors before the trip to Korea.
- Group Leaders must lead discussions and be proactive in engaging students both before the trip and during the trip to Korea.
- Group Leaders must be physically able to withstand the conditions of travel. This includes a long flight (approximately 14 hours each way to Korea) and an extended field trip in Korea.
- Group Leaders must demonstrate maturity and interpersonal skills to adapt, accept, and work in an environment different from their own.

By submitting an application, the Group Leader understands and agrees to the above stated terms.

Applications must be postmarked by October 12, 2018 and will be considered as they are received. Interviews will be held for finalists, not all applicants will be contacted for an interview.
